Vino

Wine is as much of a culture to the Italians as the land that offers the grapes to be pressed. You will find more winemakers in Italy than anywhere else in the world. Chef and Owner Tony Gambino has taken careful consideration in finding the perfect marriage of local flavors and Old World inspiration in the creation of the wine list to compliment his culinary creations. Whether you choose a wine by the glass or a bottle from Tony's special selections, your dining experience will be enhanced and your taste buds delighted.
